What does the Catechism say about...?

Happy 25th Birthday Catechism of the Catholic Church!

“132. What does the Ascension mean?”

After forty days during which Jesus showed himself to the Apostles with ordinary human features which veiled his glory as the Risen One, Christ ascended into heaven and was seated at the right hand of the Father. He is the Lord who now in his humanity reigns in the everlasting glory of the Son of God and constantly intercedes for us before the Father. He sends us his Spirit and he gives us the hope of one day reaching the place he has prepared for us.

133. How does the Lord Jesus now reign?”

As the Lord of the cosmos and of history, the Head of his Church, the glorified Christ mysteriously remains on earth where his kingdom is already present in seed and in its beginning in the Church. One day he will return in glory but we do not know the time. Because of this we live in watchful anticipation, praying ‘Come, Lord’ (Revelation 22:20).

134. How will the coming of the Lord in glory happen?”

After the final cosmic upheaval of this passing world the glorious coming of Christ will take place. Then will come the definitive triumph of God in the Parousia and the Last Judgment. Thus the Kingdom of God will be realized.

135. How will Christ judge the living and the dead?”

Christ will judge with the power he has gained as the Redeemer of the world who came to bring salvation to all. The secrets of hearts will be brought to light as well as the conduct of each one toward God and toward his neighbor. Everyone, according to how he has lived, will either be filled with life or damned for eternity. In this way, ‘the fullness of Christ’ (Ephesians 4:13) will come about in which ‘God may be all in all’ (1 Corinthians 15:28).”

Summary of paragraphs 659-682 of the Catechism as found in the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
